MacBride and Ward stated that the precise scope of the FCC decision is not yet known and that the California Public Utilities Commission may be required to supplement the conditions ordered by the FCC. Qwest representatives expressed concern that some of the rate conditions in the FCC order were limited only to existing customers and circuits. Moreover, the Qwest representatives noted that even were carriers to seek to construct their own facilities in response to the lack of competitive alternatives (arising out of the merger), carriers will require some period of time to finance and implement such construction.
